1 p.m. | Spotlight On: Kate DiCamillo and Roshani Chokshi with Ally Condie
Charleston Music Hall
Presented by Disney Publishing Worldwide
Join beloved authors of novels for all ages, Kate DiCamillo (Beverly, Right Here) and Roshani Chokshi (Aru Shah and the Song of Death) as they discuss telling tales that children love, following their imaginations into an astonishing variety of stories, and how, exactly, you entertain and inspire choosy readers by the thousands with moderator Ally Condie.

1 p.m. | Tales from the Future
Charleston Museum
Divided societies, Wild West adventure, and journeys through the stars — these books have all the dreams (and nightmares) of the future you could possibly want. Moderated by Ashley Poston with Zoraida Córdova, Charlotte Nicole Davis, Scott Reintgen, and Corrie Wang.

1 p.m. | Tough Girls, Tough Situations
American Theater Ballroom
Whether their battles are close to home or in unfamiliar lands, these girls rise to the occasion — and redefine strength. Moderated by Jodie Lynn Zdrok with Dhonielle Clayton, Nadine Jolie Courtney, Camryn Garrett, Brittney Morris, and Rory Power.

1 p.m. | I’ll Take Quidditch for $500: A Fan Game Show
Charleston Museum Courtyard
Sponsored by Penguin Random House Audio Publishing
Compete head-to-head with fellow fans and bestselling authors Nic Stone, Renée Ahdieh, David Levithan, and Alex London in themed categories featuring clips from popular audiobooks.

Books and coffee are one of our favorite OTPs. Grab a free hot beverage of your choice and spend the afternoon with some of our awesome Tor Teen authors: Charlotte Nicole Davis, Mark Oshiro, Jodie Lynn Zdrok, and Tochi Onyebuchi. This ticketed event will be limited to 50 attendees. Tickets will be distributed Saturday morning at 10 a.m. in front of the American Theater.

2 p.m. | Contemp Realness
Charleston Music Hall
Amateur sleuths! World-famous pop stars! Ambitious rappers! Don’t let the real-world settings of these stories fool you — these contemporary tales are as imaginative as they come. Moderated by Nic Stone with Mary H.K. Choi, Jenny Han, Karen M. McManus, and Angie Thomas.

2 p.m. | Assassins
Charleston Museum
They’re sent to kill, but their stories are far more complicated than life and death. Moderated by Rosiee Thor with Jordan Ifueko, Danielle Paige, Neal Shusterman, and Amélie Wen Zhao.

2 p.m. | Wondrous and Strange
American Theater Ballroom
Stories that will neither be contained nor categorized. They will, however, entrance. Moderated by Sharon Cameron with Sara Faring, David Levithan, Kim Liggett, and Rory Power.

2 p.m. | The Royal We
American Theater Cinema
Whatever the world, there are those who covet power, glamour, nobility, and status and those who would do anything to escape it. Moderated by Megan Shepherd with Kacen Callender, Makiia Lucier, and Coco Ma.

3 p.m. | Dark Fantasy
Charleston Music Hall
Welcome to worlds where morals are grey, magic is dark, and the line between heroes and villains is hardly ever clear. Each of these fantasies will transport you to adventure where wonder abounds but safety is not guaranteed. Moderated by Holly Black with Dhonielle Clayton, Renée Ahdieh, Emily A. Duncan, Alex London, and Cinda Williams Chima.

3 p.m. | Slice of Life
Charleston Museum
Come and escape into someone else’s life for a little while with these stellar contemporary authors. Moderated by Mark Oshiro with Nadine Jolie Courtney, Camryn Garrett, and Julian Winters.

3 p.m. | LGBTQIA+ Q&A
American Theater Ballroom
Authors who write across the LGBTQIA+ are ready to answer anything you want to ask in this annual celebration of community, trust, and open conversation. Moderated by David Levithan with Kacen Callender, Derek Milman, Rosiee Thor, Mason Deaver, and Ashley Poston.

4 p.m. | Powers and Magic and Magic Powers
Charleston Music Hall
Let’s be real: we’ve all longed for the ability to summon the remote from across the room when we’re comfy on the couch. These characters might just be able to do it — and more. But what happens when a regular person finds themselves capable of doing something irregular? (Fun and mayhem, that’s what.). Moderated by Soman Chainani with Julie C. Dao, Kim Liggett, Brendan Reichs, Margaret Stohl, and Adrienne Young.

4 p.m. | Moody and Mysterious
Charleston Museum
Authors of various genres talk building compelling mysteries, and the winsome characters who solve them. Moderated by Renée Ahdieh with Sara Faring, Derek Milman, Brittney Morris, Carrie Ryan, and Jodie Lynn Zdrok.

4 p.m. | Real Problems, Made Up Worlds
American Theater Ballroom
How does mental illness fit into a world with dragons? If a civilization has spaceships, would it also have Prozac? And who does an elf see when they need a therapist? This panel will explore mental illness in genre fiction, because even epic heroes can use some help sometimes. Moderated by Alex London with Charlotte Nicole Davis, Tochi Onyebuchi, Veronica Roth, and Kaitlin Ward.

4 p.m. | Booksplosion
American Theater Cinema
Booktubers Jesse George, Kat O’Keefe, and Christine Riccio.

YALLFEST SCHEDULE BY AUTHOR

SATURDAY, NOVEMBER 9

AUTHOR SIGNINGS

- All featured authors will sign books for the public on Saturday, November 9.
- Several authors will sign books at the YALLCrawl at various shops and venues near Blue Bicycle Books (420 King St.) on Friday, November 8, 2-5 p.m. See schedule on page 5.
- Books from all featured authors will be available at the YALLFest book marketplace inside the big tent next to Blue Bicycle Books.
- Many books will already be flatsigned by the authors, but you can still have them personalized.
- No more than three books per author per trip through line.
- Please do not block the sidewalk and keep the right of way clear at all times. Line up single file against the buildings.
- Pictures are permitted but don’t expect every author to grant your request.
- Festival staff may limit certain author signings with wristbands as needed to allow authors to keep their schedules.
